GREEN BANK

Geoff Greenwade
Green Bank, N.A. – President / CEO

Geoff Greenwade has served as president of Green Bank since April 2008. His team concentrates on commercial banking, real estate relationships and private/individual banking. The bank's short-term growth goal is to be multi-billion in assets through internal growth and merger/acquisition opportunities. Prior to joining Green Bank, Greenwade served 24 years with Wells Fargo and NationsBank in various Texas markets with commercial and retail responsibilities.

A native Texan, Greenwade was born in Big Spring and raised in Dallas. He earned a finance degree from Texas A&M University and a MBA from Baylor University.

Manuel J. Mehos
Green Bank, N.A. – Chairman of the Board

Manuel J. Mehos is the founder as well as the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Green Bancorp, Inc.

Previously, he was the founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Coastal Bancorp, Inc. and its banking subsidiary, Coastal Banc ssb, a publicly-traded company with assets of $3 billion that was sold to Hibernia Corporation in 2004.

On December 31, 2006, Mehos completed the acquisition of Redstone Bank and formed Green Bank. Green Bank has pursued an organic growth strategy to date and has grown from $228 million in assets to more than $900 million by mid-2011.

Mehos currently serves on the Board of Sentinel Trust and has previously served on the boards of America's Community Bankers, the Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas and Texas Savings and Community Bankers Association and as a member of the Finance Commission of Texas. Mr. Mehos has an undergraduate degree in accounting and an MBA from the University of Texas in Austin.